

DEPAUW WILL BE HOST FOR WEEK'S MEET

RELIGIOUS CONSULTATION
SESSION WILL START
ON MARCH 18

At the invitation of DePauw University, the Methodist educational institution division will conduct a Consultation on Religion in Higher Education here March 18-24.

The week-long affair, which will involve students, faculty and staff members, and trustees, is designed to serve as a means of investigating the goals and objectives of Christian education.

Participating will be four off-campus consultants, including Dr. Carl Bracy, president of Mount Union College, and Dr. Francis Christie, professor of religion at Birmingham-Southern College.

Both of the remaining consultants, Dr. Richard C. Bender and Dr. Harvey C. Brown, are members of the Methodist board of education.

On Friday, March 18, the consultation will open with a 24-hour retreat at Merom, where approximately 45 student leaders and 25 faculty members will consider the subject, "DePauw: a Christian College."

Sunday's feature will be a meeting of social organization heads at the home of President and Mrs. Russell J. Humbert for a discussion on the relation of those organizations to the university's religious goals.

The consultants have been invited to appear at the regular monthly faculty meeting Monday night; and sessions with smaller special-interest groups are scheduled for the remainder of the consultation period.

Dr. Bender, who is secretary of Methodism in higher education division, will deliver the worship chapel address Wednesday, March 23.

He was on the DePauw campus in early January to conduct a preliminary survey and to confer with university staff members on organization of the consultation.

General chairman of the event is Prof. Russell J. Compton, and sub-chairmen include President Humbert, Miss Lucile Scheuer, Kent Hawley, and Profs. Frank McKenna, W. R. McIntyre, Albert E. Reynolds, D. J. Cook and Wallace B. Graves.

New Net Champ Next Saturday

INDIANAPOLIS, March 14.—Indiana's high school basketball tournament prepared today to crown a new champion for the third straight year, and Indianapolis Attucks, after defeating top-ranked Muncie Central's bid for a fifth title, became the top choice to succeed Milan's Indians.

But powerful arguments may be presented by New Albany's record-breaking Bulldogs, Attucks' Saturday afternoon foe, and Gary Roosevelt and Fort Wayne North, the other members of the "champion circle."

Attucks reached the four-team finals for only the second time in history Saturday with a heart-pounding, 71-70 victory over last year's runner-up in a game that lived up to its advance notices in greatness.

The other three survivors pack enough wallop to make the final three game series anything but "anti-climatic."

Roosevelt crashed through for the first time, spanking two-time champion Lafayette, 59-46, thus reversing a regular season loss, after rolling over once-beaten Crawfordsville, the 1911 winner, 71-52 at Purdue. That gave Roosevelt a 20 game winning streak, the longest still alive.

New Albany, which has yet to face strong touring pressure, blitzed Swift City's Wabash Valley champions, 84-41, and Vincennes, another ex-champ, 86-58, for honors at Bloomington, establishing no less than three "sweet 16" marks.

The Southern Conference champions' scores against both semifinals foes were new records, eclipsing Terre Haute Germeyer's 78 against Evansville Central two years ago.

JAP NOT DRUNK, CARS RAN INTO HIM ON A WILD RIDE

TOKYO, March 14.—A Japanese chauffeur took a Ceylon legation car through the winding streets of downtown Tokyo on a wild, 10 mile and hour ride Sunday night and smashed into nine automobiles.

Irate taxi drivers finally collared 23 year old Mitsuo Suzuki after he bounced the 1933 sedan into a tree and wrecked it.

Suzuki told police: "I was not drunk. Those cars ran into me."

LOCK WATCHMAN IN VAULT

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 14.—Matias Bravo, a packing company night watchman, entered a cold storage locker to check the temperature when burglars slammed the door and locked him in. After spending an hour and a half in the sub-zero temperature, Bravo finally managed to open a window in the huge locker and escape.

DR. EINSTEIN OBSERVES

HIS 76TH BIRTHDAY TODAY
PRINCETON, N. J., March 14.—Albert Einstein, intellectual father of the atom bomb observed his 76th birthday today with no change in his lifetime daily habits to mark the occasion.

Princeton's most famous resident, who once said "birthdays are for children," planned to spend the day at home with his daughter, Margot, and his housekeeper and secretary, Miss Helene Dukas.

Asked if he remembered it was his birthday, the famed physicist and mathematician replied, "yes, I knew it . . . other people told me."

OLD GOLD ACE AT FORWARD ON ALL-ICC SQUAD

BOB SCHRIER IS NAMED BY HEAD COACHES OF STATE LOOP

DePauw's Bob Schrier has been named to the all-conference basketball squad of the Indiana Collegiate Conference, it was announced yesterday by the league's publicity office.

A sophomore, Schrier barely missed being a unanimous selection in voting by the league's head coaches. He was named on all but one ballot.

Only player to edge the DePauw ace in the final voting was Evansville's Jerry Clayton, a unanimous choice in his first year of college competition and a member of the conference champions.

Also named to the squad were seniors Don Merki and Willie Kellogg, both of St. Joseph's; senior Jim Howard of Valparaiso; and junior Stan Davis of Ball State.

Neither Butler nor Indiana State landed a player on the honor team, although the Bulldogs tied Valpo for second place in the final standings. St. Joseph's, only school with two representatives, finished sixth.

Schrier's selection marked the second straight year for an all-conference cager at DePauw. Center Gene Loercher was named last year DePauw's first campaign as an ICC member.

Reporters Talk With Townsend

BRUSSELS, Belgium, March 14.—(UP)—Group Capt. Peter Townsend said today he has no reason to believe that Princess Margaret has decided to marry him.

He held before him as he talked with reporters a dispatch in a London paper saying he was willing to accept exile with a certain lady if the situation should demand it.

"This statement implies that Princess Margaret has decided to marry me," he said, pointing to the dispatch.

"The Princess has made no such decision known to me nor have I any reason to believe she has made such a decision."

Townsend, wearing riding breeches, met reporters in front of his apartment. He said he would not answer questions but that he had a statement to make.

"You all know I described this alleged statement Saturday as pure invention and said it should be completely disregarded," he said.

"This is only one thing that in view of the statement swells the number of other fictitious things alleged to have been said by me."

"I shall now be forced to seek escape from meeting reporters."

HOSPITAL RECEIVES FIRST CONTRIBUTION

Hospital officials have announced that they have received the first contribution toward the new wing that is to be added to the Putnam County Hospital.

Mrs. Marilyn Jackson, President, and the other officers of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority have presented a check for $300.00 to L. E. Corbin, hospital business manager. The money was earned by sponsoring a Sweethearts Dance during February. Members of the sorority and the hospital officials wish to thank the community for their patronage of the Dance which made the contribution possible.

Mrs. Jackson said that while the dance took a lot of work they all enjoyed it and felt that it was for a worthy cause.

The money will be used for the purchase of furniture for the new wing just as soon as it can be completed. Beta Sigma Phi plan to add to the fund so that they will have completely furnished a patient room when the wing is opened. Furniture of modern design is being selected and will be placed on the third floor which will be the maternity section. The contribution will be commemorated by a permanent plaque on the door of the room, as will any other similar contributions that may be received by the hospital.

SIX HOOSIERS DIE IN FIRES OVER WEEKEND

THREE SMALL BOYS ARE VICTIMS IN ONE STATE
BLAZE

By United Press

A rash of weekend fires killed at least six persons in Indiana, including three small boys trapped in a blaze which destroyed their one-room home.

Firemen fought the Indianapolis blaze for two hours early Sunday before finding the bodies of Ernest Woodson, 6, and his brothers, Virgil, 1, and Curtis, 6 months.

Their mother, Mrs. Imogene Woodson, 21, said she left the children in the care of a friend and went to visit an aunt when the blaze broke out. The friend, Edward Richardson, 42, said the flames awakened him during the night, but he was forced out of the house by the heat after a futile search for the children.

Cause of the blaze was not determined. Authorities said the home was a converted chicken house.

Ruth Julianne Hintz, 56, was found dead on an upstairs landing in her South Bend home early Sunday when firemen extinguished a fire which did only minor damage. Coroner Joseph Stratigos said a preliminary examination showed she died of suffocation from smoke.

Albert Drake, 31, was burned to death Saturday when fire destroyed his farm home about 10 miles northeast of Cannelton. Charles Deffendall 6 months, was burned fatally in a fire which destroyed his family's house trailer near Black Oak. He died in a Gary Hospital.

Prime Minister Debates H-Bomb

LONDON, March 14.—(UP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill addresses the House of Commons today in debate over the hydrogen bomb. His speech was regarded as the curtain raiser on a knock-down, drag-out fight by rival leaders of the Labor Party.

The House has before it a Socialist motion censuring Churchill's conservatives for refusing to seek top level talks between the West and Russia before deciding to build Britain's own hydrogen bomb.

Churchill's position already was known. He had stated repeatedly he wants the H-bomb new and disarmament talks later—especially after the ratification of agreements to rearm West Germany.

As a result the nation's attention centered more on the dispute that split the Labor Party. Left-wing Labor Leader Aneurin Bevan has split with Clement Attlee, the former prime minister and the head of the party.

British newspapers have dubbed it the "Bye, Nye" movement since Attlee followers seek to expel Bevan from the party.

Observers believed Churchill would not distract public attention from the dogfight between members of the opposition Labor Party.

EXTRA!

EAST CHICAGO, Ind., March 14.—(UP)—Police today investigated the slaying of Anna Lee Lawrence, 25, shot in the neck during a fight in a basement restaurant.

William F. Newman, 31, the restaurant manager, was held on an open charge. He told police a revolver discharged in his hand as he tried to break up the fight involving about six persons.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(UP)—Foreign Operations Administrator Harold E. Stassen is scheduled to report to President Eisenhower today on the economic needs of the Communist-thwarted Far East.

Stassen is expected to discuss with the President how much U. S. money should go into the Asian aid program and what the free peoples of Asia can do for themselves.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—(UP)—The city Planning Department took the wrappings off one-way signs on two downtown streets Sunday to speed the heavy flow of traffic.

It took police four hours to unsnarl the jam of confused motorists.

DETROIT, March 14.—(UP)—General Motors meets today for the first time with the United Auto Workers Union to talk over union demands for a guaranteed wage.

The negotiations, unprecedented on any large scale in labor history, pose a possible threat to the labor peace of the last five years in the automotive industry.

The General Motors contract with the union expires May 29. Unless the annual wage demand is resolved, the union may call a strike involving hundreds of thousands at either General Motors or Ford. The Ford contract runs out June 1.

Ford will meet with the union Wednesday.

NEW YORK, March 14.—(UP)—The repeat performance of the Jelke vice trial, quiet and peaceful so far, resumes today with the promise courtroom pyrotechnics—and spicy testimony—just around the corner.

Attorneys for the prosecution and for vice heir Minot Mickey F. Jelke have gone about the business of selecting a jury in a spirit of camaraderie that includes an occasional pat on the shoulder or a frequent exchange of pleasantries.

EXPERT ADVISES ON THE STOCK MARKET BOOMS

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Federal Reserve Chairman William McChesney Martin, Jr., cautioned today against the public becoming "unduly preoccupied with stock markets," because it may lead to "unsound speculative psychology."

He also said margin requirements—the amount of cash needed for stock purchases—are not "cure-alls for stock market excesses or abuses."

Martin made the comments in testimony prepared for a hearing in the Senate Banking Committee's "friendly" investigation of the stock market boom during the last 18 months.

NEW ARGUMENTS DEVELOP OVER DEMO TAX CUT

PLAN IS DENOUNCED BY SECRETARY OF TREASURY
HUMPHREY

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(UP)—Democrats and Republicans laid down a fresh barrage of arguments for and against the compromise income tax cut today.

Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey issued a special statement denouncing the Democratic compromise plan for a $20-$10 tax cut as "unwise political tinkering" that would hurt the "little people" the Democrats "talk so much about" by damaging the nation's business economy.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey D-Minn., accused the Eisenhower administration of "irresponsible" in tax legislation—a charge both Humphrey and President Eisenhower previously had lobbed at the Democrats.

The Minnesota senator also said Congress has to choose between "the American people or big business corporations."

Sen. Paul J. Douglas, D-Ill., chairman of the Joint Congressional Economic Committee, said the majority comment in the committee's annual report could be interpreted as specific endorsement of the income tax cut compromise. The report was released today.

Airliner Makes Exciting Flight

NEWARK, N. J., March 14.—(UP)—A crazed airline passenger terrorized 30 fellow passengers and the plane's crew for five tense minutes Sunday night with a piece of wood that he said was a gun.

The passenger, who identified himself as Edward Koen, a former Boston policeman, stood up in the aisle shortly before the Eastern Airlines plane landed here on a flight from Washington. With one hand thrust in his coat pocket, he announced dramatically: "Don't anybody move, I've got a gun."

Passengers said Koen continued to stand menacingly in the aisle when the plane landed.

After the landing, he ordered someone to open the door to the pilot's compartment and told the pilot, Capt. A. L. Nelson, not to move. Nelson thought the man was joking but Purser Curtis Ivey shouted, "This is no joke. Call the cops."

Nelson ducked back in the compartment and radioed the tower for help.

When police with drawn guns swarmed around the plane, Koen ordered the passengers to leave. After the passengers filed out, followed by Hostess Peggy Goodrich, police boarded the plane and arrested Koen.

A search revealed the "gun" was only a small piece of wood, held realistically in his pocket.

Koen was taken to Newark police headquarters and held for a mental examination.

Farm Meeting At Cloverdale

The Cloverdale Township Farm Bureau members met in regular session in the auditorium of the high school building Thursday evening. "My Country 'tis of Thee" was the opening song. WHERE FIRST WARD GOT ITS FIRE ESCAPE

This is all that was left of the west fire escape at the Ridpath Third Ward school, after the First Ward got through taking it away. Now that the First Ward has a new building, it will be replaced. First Ward school officials say the state fire marshal's office asked the removal of the fire escape. The only means of children getting down from the second floor of the building was the general stairway. A single fire escape is on the east side of the building, leaving from the north-east corner room.

Muzzy Muddles Through Thanks To A Bit Of Luck

This is the kind of hand that drives Mr. Champion crazy. He did some beautiful reasoning and came up with a sterling defensive play. Mr. Muzzy just muddled along—and came out on top.

The opening lead by Miss Brash was the king of diamonds which Mr. Muzzy permitted to win. It was at this point that Mr. Champion did his masterminding.

He studied the dummy very carefully. He figured that if Mr. Muzzy had any opening bid at all, he had to have the ace of spades and the king-queen of clubs. How, then, was Miss Brash going to get in to run her diamond suit after it was set up?

Obviously, if she had any possible side entry, it had to be in hearts. If she held the queen of hearts, there would be no problem. But he made a play which would enable her to gain the lead even if she held as little as the jack and one heart, or three to the 10.

DISCARDS KING

At trick one, he discarded the king of hearts. This play startled everybody including the kibitzers.

Mr. Muzzy laughed. "Guess I'm not the only one who pulls wrong cards," he said. "I meant to play the card," snapped Mr. Champion.

At trick two Miss Brash led the queen of diamonds, dummy's ace won and Mr. Champion dropped the ace of hearts. Now Mr. Muzzy couldn't establish his heart suit without losing to Miss Brash's ten.

Mr. Muzzy is a great one to cash his high cards. He now took three club tricks. Miss Brash playing her two clubs and the four of spades. Next he played the queen of hearts. Then came the ace of spades and he groaned when Miss Brash showed out, discarding the deuce of diamonds.

CONFUSION WINS

Here he became confused. He meant to play the jack of hearts next, in the hope of dropping the ten. But he got his hand on a spade and won the trick with dummy's king. Miss Brash unfortunately discarding another diamond.

There he was on the board with nothing left but spades and diamonds. "I give up," he said, as he led a diamond.

The result was magic. Miss Brash had only three diamonds left. She won these—but had to lead from her ten of hearts into Mr. Muzzy's jack-nine.

"Champion, I told you it was silly to throw away your ace and king of hearts," was Mr. Muzzy's comment.

MARCH OF EVENTS

Slowdown in Congressional Commie Hearings Foreseen

Demos May Still Control Congress Though Ike Wins

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—There will be a noticeable slowdown in congressional hearings into Communism this year. None of the investigating committees have made plans for extensive hearings in this field.

The reason: The Democrats who are now in control want to concentrate on foreign affairs and domestic issues in an effort to develop new campaign issues for 1956 and they feel the Red inquiries have distracted public attention from the less-headline-catching but nonetheless serious work of Congress.

In addition, the Democrats feel that often the Red hunts of the past were exaggerated by the Republicans for purely political purposes to assail the record of the Roosevelt and Truman administrations.

While they claim they will continue to be on the alert to the danger of Communist infiltration, the Democratic leaders in both the House and Senate are willing to leave the job of rooting out Red subversion to the FBI.

Another factor working as a deterrent to large-scale hearings is the recent repudiation by ex-Red Harvey Matusow of testimony he gave as a witness before congressional committees. Democrats are anxious to avoid any repetition of such a turn-about incident, which they feel could seriously discredit the work done in the field.

1956 SPLIT—Should President Eisenhower run and win a second term in 1956, it might well be he would find himself confronted again with either one or both houses of Congress controlled by the Democrats.

In last year's election, most observers foresaw election of a Democratic House a fairly certain thing while a see-saw battle waged for control of the Senate.

In 1956, the situation will be reversed if Mr. Eisenhower runs again. Even with him heading the ticket, Republicans face an uphill struggle to regain control of the Senate while his political popularity would give the GOP a pre-election edge in the chances for winning a majority of the 435 House seats that will be at stake.

The Senate situation was reflected in the recent survey made by Senator Barry Goldwater (R), Arizona. Goldwater, chairman of the Senate GOP campaign committee, indicated that the Republicans stand in danger of losing 10 seats while the Democrats, at this moment, have only two shaky senatorships upcoming next year.

Even though there are 15 Senate Democrats who must run next year, 10 of them come from southern or border states where there is little likelihood of ousting them. The remaining five Democratic incumbents are from Arizona, New York, Nevada, Washington and Oregon.

In Goldwater's estimate, the Republicans stand a good chance of unseating Democrats in New York and Washington. He concedes that Oregon has voted consistently GOP in the past and in 1952, both Arizona and Nevada were in the Republican camp.

Offsetting this, however, is the fact that 10 key GOP seats are up for election in states that have in the past gone Democratic. They are Indiana, Ohio, Connecticut, Maryland, Utah, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Idaho, Wisconsin and California.

FAIRLY SPOKEN

Good Night Thoughts
For Baby Daughter

By Margaret Latrobe

"I can't give you anything but love, baby."

Will it be enough, little girl? When we tiptoe in at night, pretending to arrange the covers, to brush away soft curls from cherub cheek, to see that all is well, those aren't the real reasons we are there beside your bed.

It's then that the day's eagerness is stilled, when your perfect small hands curved in chubby fists are quiet and your whole baby self in pale blue sleepers is overtaken by slumber, movement suspended for the night. We marvel at a child's beauty—the lashes, the gentle breath like flowers—a baby girl sleeping after a full-tilt scampering day. Standing beside you, we are half afraid the light will wake you, half hoping it will, because your next smile, the next bright words can't come too soon for us. A long time we look at the child, now ours alone, and wonder how long we can hold your hand.
